
Return to CIRM Meetings and Events

Combating the Challenges of Aging Through Stem Cells

Oct 29, 2011

Main Location:

The Cooperage, Sonoma State University
1801 East Cotati Avenue
Rohnert Park, CA

CIRM Patient Advocacy Day & Stem Cell Update on Aging

Agenda

8:30 AM Registration, Continental Breakfast and Patient Advocate Display Tables

9:30 AM Welcome and Keynote Presentation,

"CIRM's Investment in Solving Health Problems Related to Aging"

Senator Art Torres, Vice Chairman of Independent Citizens Oversight Committee, CIRM's Governing Board

"Stem Cells and Aging: Renegade Cells"

Julie Mangada, Ph.D.,
The Buck Institute, Novato, CA

"Stem Cells: A Tool for the Development of Novel Therapeutics for Parkinson's Disease"

Julie Andersen, Ph.D.,
The Buck Institute, Novato, CA

Complimentary Lunch

"My Aching Back! New Diagnostic Tools and Cell-based Therapies for an Age-old Problem"

Jeffrey Lotz, Ph.D.,
The University of California, San Francisco

Patient Advocate Sharing Sessions

1:30 PM Program Concludes

RSVP: Lorraine Stiehl lorstiehl@stiehlworks.com

Follow the meeting on Twitter at #CIRMSantaRosa

Source URL: <https://www.cirm.ca.gov/agendas/10212011/combating-challenges-aging-through-stem-cells>